

Improving Healthcare Outcomes by Addressing Access and Equity through the Lens of Maternal Child Health

Central California Alliance for Health (CCAH) CME with Dr. Carmin Powell and Dr. Cristina Gamboa

June 16, 2021 7:30 – 9:00am

AGENDA

7:30-7:40	Welcome and Speaker Introductions Review Objectives
7:40 – 8:00	Current state of health disparities General demographic in CCAH population and CA overall CCAH data on Disease Prevalence Social determinants of health Addressing Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)
8:01-8:20	Maternal Health & Considerations for Practice Overview of maternal morbidity & mortality and influences on maternal health outcomes Impact of culture on patient and family centered care in the Latinx community Latinx Epidemiologic Paradox and effects of acculturation on health outcomes
8:20-8:40	Neonatal & Pediatric Health Address racism and health disparities present in the clinical setting Equity in quality improvement, anti-racism and effective allyship (American Academy of Pediatrics toolkit)
8:40 – 8:45	Summary and Call to Action
8:45 - 9:00	Q and A Evaluations

Session Objectives:

1. By the end of this session, participants will be able to identify the diversifying demographics of California and CCAH service areas
2. By the end of this session, participants will be able to examine the impact of race/ethnicity and social determinants of health on maternal child healthcare outcomes
3. By the end of this session, participants will be able to demonstrate effective anti-racism and allyship in their clinical practice
4. By the end of this session, participants will be able to create strategies to overcome structural barriers and promote health equity

