

Improving Healthcare Outcomes by Addressing Access & Equity through the lens of Maternal Child Health

June 16, 2021 | 7:30 – 9:00 am

What is your call action?

- Continue to assist ALL with enrollment into FREE or affordable healthcare programs.
- Commit to integrating equity measures into grant deliverables.
- Keep HOPE alive.... let us have more meetings like this!
- Treat others the way I would want myself and loved ones treated. Advocate and approach with compassion and empathy.
- Empower my patients to ask to questions/engage in their care.
- Advocate for my family and community
- Examine myself for bias
- Continue to advocate to the Alliance and others, including my own agency, to support implementation of services in ways that respond to these statistics mentioned. Today was just a seed. Seeds need watering.
- Continue this conversation amongst our team to maintain awareness and always 'check' ourselves when providing care.
- Learn more and teach my students more about ACES and about your presentation today, thankYou!
- Actively assess and advocate for culturally competent, anti-racist and trauma-informed care
- Continue to educate myself to be a better advocate for my clients.
- Provide services in native languages.
- Make others aware!
- Hold systems and payors accountable!
- Continue to advocate!
- Continue to show up and call forward injustices through the lens of anti-racism.
- Provide a voice for the voiceless
- Provide more resources to our contracted providers.
- Study. Share. Advocate. Listen. Act.
- Address my own personal bias and investigate my implicit biases.
- Fight for my family and our neighbors in my grandmother's memory
- Recruit and retain people of color in healthcare.
- Use these slides to remind me.
- Pipeline
- I will share the glossary provided here with my team within the next month.
- Advocate for minorities
- Keep asking questions. I was so unaware.
- Share the information I learned from this webinar to fellow college students who are also pursuing a medical/health profession!
- Be present and listen. Wait to speak.
- Change in governance structure
